

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

Traci Silas
Director, Department of Homeland Security Headquarters

Traci Silas was delegated by former Secretary Janet Napolitano as the career Director of Federal Advisory Committees (FACA) for the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Prior to accepting her position as the FACA Director in 2013, Mrs. Silas served as Director of the Information Disclosure Office for the DHS Office of Policy, a privacy attorney for Booz Allen Hamilton, an international real estate attorney for Sotheby's International, a student ambassador for the United Nations Center for Human Rights and a legal intern for the Honorable Noel A. Kramer of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals. Mrs. Silas holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Hampton University in Hampton, Virginia; an international certification in Use of Force Law from the University of Nice in France; an international certification in European Union Law from the University of the Netherland Antilles in Curacao; and a Juris Doctorate in general practice, international law and real estate law from Hofstra University School of Law.